WELCOME TO OUR
5-STAR LUXURY HOTEL

Hotel Vier Jahreszeiten in Hamburg is the epitome of European Luxury Hotels. Since 1897, the elegant hotel by the Inner Alster Lake has provided guests from all over the world with charming luxury and timeless elegance in the heart of the Hanseatic city, close to several cultural and architectural sights, multiple shopping opportunities as well as the Hamburg Congress Centre.

The philosophy of our hotel is simple: Service, service, service! It is the staff that gives Hotel Vier Jahreszeiten its soul and life.

Arrive and feel completely at home!

A PLACE WHERE HERITAGE MEETS INNOVATION.

We are writing history at Hotel Vier Jahreszeiten since 1897, welcoming guests from all over the world with first-class service and timeless elegance.

Discover our rich history - countless anecdotes, iconic personalities and magical memories.

1897

THE BEGINNING OF SOMETHING VERY SPECIAL

On February 24, 1897, Friedrich Haerlin buys Hotel zu den "Vier Jahreszeiten" at auction for 420,000 marks. Owning a hotel had been his lifelong dream. His wife Thekla Toussaint supports him from the very beginning, making the acquisition possible.

JAHRESZEITEN GRILL

In 1925, Friedrich Haerlin commissioned Düsseldorf architect Professor Fahrenkamp to design a refuge for the Hamburg's business elite, offering elegant yet uncomplicated dining in a refined setting.

1900 - 1905

AHEAD OF HIS TIME

After buying the hotel, Haerlin undertook renovations worth 100,000 marks. In 1900, it becomes Hamburg's first hotel with central heating and hot water, ensuring comfort throughout the year. In 1905, an extension adds 57 rooms, officially establishing it as a „Grand Hotel“.

1928

HOTEL VIER JAHRESZEITEN IN NEW SPLENDOUR

In 1928, all hotel buildings were elevated to the same level and provided with long viewing balcony on the 5th floor facing the „Inner Alster Lake“ and crowned with a green copper roof.

1909 - 1919

FOUNDATIONS FOR A PROMISING FUTURE

In 1909, the hotel expands with 140 new rooms. In 1913, Haerlin's 16-year-old son Fritz begins his apprenticeship. In 1919, restaurant Haerlin opened and quickly became one of Hamburg's leading culinary destinations. quickly becomes one of the top culinary destinations in Hamburg.

1932 - 1935

THE NEXT GENERATION OF LEADERSHIP

In 1932, Friedrich Haerlin handed over the management and ownership of the Grand Hotel to his 22-year-old son Fritz, the only one of his three sons who survived the war.

Fritz Haerlin initially set out travelled abroad and returned in 1933 with 1,500 dollars, which he invested in "Bordeaux" wines for the hotel as well as in renovations of several parts of the property.

In 1935, he opened "Café Condi", a Biedermeier-style confectionery that soon became a popular meeting place for Hamburg's high society.

1939 - 1949

THE FAMILY GROWS IN DIFFICULT TIMES

Shortly before the "world war II", Fritz Haerlin expands the hotel by purchasing a building on "Grosse Theaterstrasse". Despite the bombing raids, it remained undamaged. In 1941 Fritz Haerlin meets his future wife Agnes, the same year his father Friedrich Haerlin dies. Just a few years later - in 1943 and 1944 - Fritz and Agnes two daughters are born.

1950 - 1952

GLAMOROUS TIMES

On April 4, 1950, "Hotel Vier Jahreszeiten" regains its splendor. Visits from royals, politicians, opera stars, and celebrities defined the hotel's glamorous post-war era.

1975 - 1989

END OF AN ERA

Fritz Haerlin passed away in 1975. His wife, Agnes Haerlin, took over the hotel and introduced new ideas and innovations. In 1987, the hotel co-founded the "Selection of Germany Luxury Hotels".

Two years later, in 1989, Agnes Haerlin and her daughters sold the property for 215 million marks, marking the end of the Haerlin family era.

1997

FROM BELLBOY TO GENERAL MANAGER

On August 2, 1981, Ingo C. Peters began his apprenticeship at “Hotel Vier Jahreszeiten”. After studying at “Cornell University” and gaining professional experiences in Asia and Northern America, he returns to his hometown Hamburg and becomes hotel manager on October 1, 1997.

1998

OPENING OF THE DOC CHENG'S

A new culinary concept takes over the former “Jahreszeiten Keller”: “Doc Cheng’s”, an Asian restaurant, opened its doors, blending Western and Far Eastern influences in both interior design and cuisine.

2006

CULINARY DELIGHTS ON THE ALSTER LAKE

The “Jahreszeiten Terrace” opened on a pontoon on the “Inner Alster Lake”, offering guests panoramic views while enjoying lunch, coffee, or dinner from April to October in the heart of Hamburg. In 2025, it was rebranded into “DECK 4”.

2000

OPENING SPA & FITNESS CLUB

The “Jahreszeiten Spa & Fitness” opened on the 5th and 6th floors, offering guests luxurious wellness facilities. A 300 m² roof-top terrace connected to the “Spa & Fitness Club” featuring a champagne bar and lounge quickly became an insider tip.

2013

CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP

The Dohle family’s asset management company acquired Hotel Vier Jahreszeiten. For owner Kurt Dohle, this was a lifelong dream come true, and immediately after the purchase, he begins to realize his vision of creating the best hotel in Europe. Numerous renovations and construction projects propelled “Hotel Vier Jahreszeiten” into the future, perfectly combining history and modernity.

2015

EXTENSIVE REFURBISHMENT OF THE HOTEL

Kurt Dohle oversaw the hotel's largest renovation in 113 years. Modernizing rooms, restaurants, and wellness areas over a period of three years. In 2015 "Hotel Vier Jahreszeiten" shines in renewed splendor.

2020

GERMANY'S 101 BEST HOTEL

Since 2020, "Hotel Vier Jahreszeiten" has been ranked among the "101 Best Hotels" and has held the title of "Germany's Best Hotel" to this day.

2021

CONSTANTLY LOOKING AHEAD

The hotel's reception area was completely redesigned with timeless elegance. A blend of cream, gold, and watercolors creates a cosmopolitan atmosphere by the "Inner Alster Lake".

2016

OPENING OF NIKKEI NINE

The Japanese-Peruvian restaurant "NIKKEI NINE" replaced "Doc Cheng's", offering a unique fusion of Japanese and Peruvian flavors in a vibrant setting.

2021

ONE OF THE MOST EXCLUSIVE EVENT LOCATIONS

After 25 years as managing director, Ingo C. Peters fulfilled his dream: the hotel's wine cellar was transformed into one of Europe's most exclusive event venues. In an exclusive atmosphere surrounded by genuine rarities, guests can enjoy private wine tastings or cozy evenings with friends in the wine cellar, accompanied by culinary highlights.

2022

NEWLY DESIGNED PRESIDENTIAL SUITE

The “Presidential Suite” impresses with Hanseatic elegance, luxurious comfort and panoramic views over the “Inner Alster Lake” - spanning up to 350 m² on the fourth floor. The unique “Presidential Suite” offers pure comfort, cozy living rooms or a private meeting space. Combined with the connected rooms, it becomes one of the largest suites in Hamburg.

2023

GRILL

After intensive renovations, the historic “GRILL” reopens. A perfect fusion of tradition and modernism. It brings together over a century of history with its Art Deco design and culinary excellence.

2025

THE THIRD MICHELIN STAR

In 2025, “Restaurant Haerlin” received its third “Michelin” star under the leadership of Christoph Rüffer. This highest honor from the “Michelin Guide” reflects the restaurant’s continual evolution and its distinguished status in international fine dining.

NIKKEI NINE

Japanese-Peruvian fusion cuisine

At NIKKEI NINE, the fascinating fusion of Japanese precision and Peruvian vibrancy creates a culinary experience of remarkable depth and character. Nikkei cuisine is celebrated for its unexpected combinations and expressive flavours, uniting the refined elegance of Japanese gastronomy with the bold, savoury influences of Peru.

From Wagyu tartare sourced from the southernmost tip of Japan to delicately pickled scallops enriched with subtle Peruvian accents, each dish reflects this harmonious meeting of cultures. In the open show kitchen, selected specialities are prepared over an open flame on the traditional Japanese robata grill, adding a distinctive smoky note and theatrical flair to the dining experience.

NIKKEI NINE invites guests to indulge in an atmosphere that is both cosmopolitan and sophisticated. From Thursday to Saturday, a DJ provides a contemporary soundtrack, perfectly complementing the vibrant ambience of the evening.

GRILL

Art Déco meets Hanseatic culinary

Welcome to one of the most beautiful lunch and dinner locations in Hamburg! The interior of the GRILL restaurant pays homage to the refined opulence of the Art-Déco style. Timeless elegance and warmth define the atmosphere from the very first moment. In the restaurant, Caucasian walnut and warm tones such as olive green and dove blue create an elegant yet welcoming ambiance. The Oval Salon is distinguished by delicate pastel tones and a surrounding mural inspired by Hamburg's Feenteich.

WOHNHALLE

An oasis of style and calm

The Wohnhalle, affectionately known as „Hamburg’s living room“, is the heart of Hotel Vier Jahreszeiten. Its unique 19th-century charm makes it an oasis of calm and relaxation. Enjoy a British-style afternoon tea and delectable pastry, including scones with clotted cream, alongside a carefully curated selection of teas for a truly special experience.

Be enchanted by an atmosphere like no other - the crackling fireplace, the melodious sounds of our resident pianist, and the perfect blend of elegance and coziness in the Wohnhalle. And, of course, our attentive staff ensures that every wish is met with impeccable service.

BEST OF HAMBURG

Discover the very best of Hamburg during your stay at the Hotel Vier Jahreszeiten. Step into the historic charm of the Speicherstadt, the world's largest warehouse district, where enchanting canals and striking red-brick architecture tell the story of the city's maritime heritage.

Venture further to the picturesque „Treppenviertel“ in Blankenese, a hillside quarter of cobblestone streets, charming steps and panoramic views over the Elbe River — a setting that feels almost Mediterranean in its beauty.

These iconic landmarks, together with Hamburg's vibrant cultural scene and lively waterfront, promise to make your visit truly unforgettable.

CULTURAL HIGHLIGHTS

Discover the cultural heart of Hamburg during your stay. Immerse yourself in the city's artistic vibrancy with a visit to the „Elbphilharmonie“, a masterpiece of modern architecture offering extraordinary acoustics and sweeping views of the harbor. Explore the Montblanc Haus, where luxury and craftsmanship meet in an elegant celebration of design. These iconic cultural landmarks, along with the charm of Hamburg's unique neighborhoods, promise an unforgettable journey filled with art, history, and inspiration.

SURROUNDINGS

Thanks to its unique location in northern Germany, the Hanseatic city of Hamburg offers the rare advantage of being within easy reach of both the North Sea and the Baltic Sea, making them perfect options for unforgettable day trips to discover the history of apple cultivation in the Altes Land region. A particular highlight is the famous North Sea island of Sylt, which has its own unique charm with its wide sandy beaches, dunes, and thatched houses. Our concierge team will put together a personalised day trip for you with all the special sights and attractions for a genuine North German experience.

CHRISTMAS SEASON

Hamburg is enchanting at any time of year, but as November draws to a close, the city takes on a truly magical atmosphere. Streets and squares are transformed into one of Germany's most exquisite Christmas markets, a winter wonderland filled with festive lights, fragrant aromas, and the joyful spirit of the season.

Just steps from Hotel Vier Jahreszeiten on Jungfernstieg, the Christmas world invites guests to enjoy mulled wine, artisanal bratwurst and other seasonal delicacies while strolling along the picturesque waterfront. For those in search of exceptional gifts, the historic Christmas market at Hamburg Town Hall presents an exquisite selection of handcrafted treasures, ranging from delicate toys to elegant festive decorations, all reflecting the finest local craftsmanship.

With its blend of culinary indulgence, artisanal artistry, and festive charm, Hamburg's Christmas markets create an unforgettable seasonal experience — one that promises both sophistication and a warm, celebratory spirit.
