„Deck 4“ Terrace at Fairmont Hotel Vier Jahreszeiten shines in new splendor

Hamburg, May 2025 – As part of the extensive redesign of Neuer Jungfernstieg, Fairmont Hotel Vier Jahreszeiten unveils a new outdoor concept on the pontoon overlooking the Inner Alster Lake.

More than 15 years after the opening of the former “Jahreszeiten Terrace”, the spacious summer terrace is celebrating its reopening under the new name DECK 4. The new concept combines Northern German elegance with maritime flair. In addition, the new interior in classic blue and white, combined with high-quality wooden furniture, creates a stylish atmosphere right on the waterfront with a breathtaking view of the historic Alster fountain. DECK 4 welcomes Hamburg residents and visitors alike to the city to enjoy the summer months in a refreshed Hanseatic atmosphere.

The redesigned concept is also reflected in the menu, which focuses on high-quality regional products and places particular emphasis on classic fish specialties from the North with international influences. From lobster rolls and fine seafood linguine to traditional fish sandwiches – the dishes impress with their sophistication and quality. The offer is complemented by an exquisite selection of wines, champagnes and creative cocktails creations, which tastefully round off the maritime concept.

The reopening of DECK 4 is also an important milestone in the comprehensive remodeling of the Neuer Jungfernstieg. After intensive construction works since 2024, the traditional promenade is now a lively meeting point in the heart of Hamburg, just in time for summer.

„Our aim is to offer our guests an exceptional culinary experience in a unique ambiance. The redesign of our terrace is a great opportunity to further develop our gastronomic concepts and create a special place in the summer months“, says Ingo C. Peters, Managing Director of Fairmont Hotel Vier Jahreszeiten.
